

Oklahoma City organizations continue to excel in raising funds for greater causes. Our Oklahoma City readers pick the Oklahoma City Museum of Art's Renaissance Ball as their favorite. Purple Sash, hosted by the YWCA of Oklahoma City, takes the number two spot and Boots and Ballgowns, benefiting Infant Crisis Services, comes in third.

Charity/Nonprofit

Oklahomans' deep devotion to charity is legendary. The Children's Hospital Foundation at Saint Francis, established in 2005, continues to provide for the children and families at The Children's Hospital at Saint Francis. Make-A-Wish Foundation, helping children with life-threatening medical conditions to achieve their dreams, and United Way, continuing to make lasting changes in the community,

The Children's Hospital at Saint Francis

come in at second place. Catholic Charities and The Little Light House follow close behind with their dedication to helping those in need.

Charitable organizations in Oklahoma City provide for and impact countless lives. Infant Crisis Services, a provider of resources for infants and toddlers, was chosen as the top charity in Oklahoma City. United Way of Central Oklahoma and YMCA of Greater OKC tie for the second place spot, and The Spero Project follows close behind with a goal of moving awareness into action.

Chef

Exquisite cuisine delights diners throughout Tulsa. Michael Fusco of Michael Fusco's Riverside Grill has impressed Tulsa tasters. Justin Thompson of The Brasserie Restaurant & Bar and Sonoma Bistro & Wine Bar comes in second with his French and California-inspired cuisine. Tim Inman, chef/owner of Stonehorse Café, and James Shrader of Palace Café rank as favorites among our Tulsa readers.

Oklahoma City readers have given this year's honor to Ryan Parrott of Iguana Mexican Grill. Robert Black of Red PrimeSteak follows close behind in second place. The competition in Oklahoma City is stiff – resulting in a three-way tie for third place. The honor goes to Eric Smith of Panchinko Parlor and Sara Sara Cupcakes, Andrew Black of Park Avenue Grill and Christine Dowd of Trattoria il Centro.

Company to Work For

Employees have cast their votes, and Saint Francis Health System and Williams Company rank as two of the best Tulsa companies to work for. Cherokee Nation Enterprises and ONEOK follow close behind, as well as Quik Trip, New Dominion, LLC and Manhattan Construction.

Oklahoma City employees pick Chesapeake Energy as top company to work for, followed by Devon Energy, both committed to their employees and the community. Delta Dental and American Fidelity Assurance Co. take third place.

Local Icon/Landmark

Tulsa is home to a variety of local icons and landmarks, yet the Golden Driller in front of the Expo Square has awed locals since 1966. Commemorating the heyday of the Tulsa oil boom, this driller takes top honors as the number one local icon in Tulsa. The new BOK Center has quickly gained attention
