HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS of residents in the Tulsa area were helped by Tulsa Area United Way's 61 partner agencies last year. For example:

570 women who were homeless found safe housing, counseling and case management services at the DVIS emergency shelter.

20,065 individuals received case management assistance, senior services information and caregiver support from LIFE Senior Services.

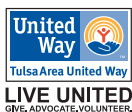

303 adults with disabilities and other employment barriers were assisted in preparing for and finding suitable employment by Goodwill's TulsaWORKS program.
