

Food Drive Volunteer Guide Friday, June 24, 2022

Thank you for volunteering for the Day of Caring Food Drive on June 24! We are grateful for your commitment to caring for our friends and neighbors in need.

As a volunteer, you will help:

- Guide cars through the food drive site
- Accept donations
- Track number of donors using the handheld clicker provided. Ask donor how many people contributed to their donations and count each person.
- Thank donors for their support of Tulsa Area United Way and the community

T-shirts and refreshments will be provided.

To help Tulsa Area United Way organize this event, we request that you use our volunteer portal to sign up.

If you have any questions, please contact your site lead.

Welcome to the Tulsa Area United Way volunteer portal!

Our goal is to connect changemakers with nonprofits and schools in need, while engaging socially responsible corporate partners to help make a difference in our six-county service region.

Volunteering with Tulsa Area United Way and our partner agencies allows businesses, individuals and families the opportunity to create collective community change. In 2021, 6,100 United Way volunteers served during our Days of Caring, meeting critical needs and leaving a lasting impact on others.

From volunteering alongside your colleagues on Day of Caring, to being part of our Community Investments process, to helping at our partner agencies all year long, we have an engaging opportunity for you to positively impact the community through your time and talents. Thank you for being here, and thank you for Volunteering United!
